Note

This page contains a list of the third-party open-source components, and their notices, included in the CyberArk Products.

If applicable, and to the extent any open source components are licensed under GPL and/or LGPL or other similar license that requires the source code and/or modifications to source code to be made available, a copy of the source code corresponding to the binaries for such open source components and modifications thereto, if any, may be obtained by sending a request to support@cyberark.com. This offer to obtain a copy of the source code is valid only throughout the supported term of the respective product, according to the CyberArk End-of-Life Policy, and for not less than 3 years after the version was released.
