Note

This page contains a list of the third-party open-source components, and their notices, included in the CyberArk Products.

If applicable, and to the extent any open source components are licensed under GPL and/or LGPL or other similar license that requires the source code and/or modifications to source code to be made available, a copy of the source code corresponding to the binaries for such open source components and modifications thereto, if any, may be obtained by downloading the source code from the attached link or by sending a request to support@cyberark.com. This offer to obtain a copy of the source code is valid only throughout the supported term of the respective product, according to the CyberArk End-of-Life Policy, and for not less than 3 years after the version was released.
